STRUCTURE HOUSE[®] PARTNERS WITH UNITEDHEALTH GROUP'S HEALTHALLIES[®] HEALTH VALUE PROGRAM

HealthAllies Health Value Program Offers Discounts on a Wide Range of Health-Related Services

DURHAM, NC (August 1, 2005) – Structure House[®], a premier residential weight loss facility in the diet capital of Durham, North Carolina, announced today an agreement with HealthAllies[®], Inc., a UnitedHealth Group company (NYSE: UNH), to offer preferred pricing on Structure House New Participant programs to the 5.6 million members of HealthAllies' health value program. Members of HealthAllies will receive a 20 percent discount on all New Participant programs if they provide their HealthAllies member number at the time they make their reservation and their ID card upon check-in to Structure House.

The unique and innovative Structure House plan focuses on weight loss, lifestyle change, and diabetes management, with an integrated approach to weight loss that is focused on personal responsibility and lifestyle change. Founder and director of the program, Dr. Gerard J. Musante, stresses that, "To be truly successful at keeping weight off, you must treat the whole person: mind and body. Structure House experts guide participants to a healthy lifestyle based on structured eating, daily exercise and a new understanding of their relationship with food."

Thomas V. Sullivan, general manager of HealthAllies, explains that Structure House is a fitting addition to HealthAllies' network of health and wellness providers. "Our mission is to enable members to gain more control of their health and their health spending by providing pre-negotiated savings on a wide range of health-related products and services," said Sullivan. "Our agreement with Structure House makes this valuable tool for lifestyle change more affordable for our members."

Structure House offers one- to four-week programs for new participants. The program fees include a private apartment, all meals and extensive exercise facilities. In addition, participants can take part in more than 80 weekly behavior, nutrition and fitness classes to engage body and mind. Structure House visits include personal attention from experts in the fields of psychology, medicine, nutrition and fitness.

About Structure House
